

RESOLUTION NO.: R-2003-056

Designating 1644 Main Street (former Tapp's Building) as an Historic Property Eligible for Special Property Tax Assessments for Rehabilitated Historic Properties

WHEREAS, Columbia City Council has heretofore established a policy with respect to special property tax assessments for rehabilitated historic properties as authorized by Sections 4-9-195 and 5-21-140 of the South Carolina Code of Laws, (1976) as amended; and,

WHEREAS, the policy previously adopted provides that the City Council may designate a property or district as historic if it is more than fifty (50) years old and meets one or more of the following criteria:

1. has significant inherent character, interest, or value as a part of the development or heritage of the community, state or nation;
2. is the site of an event significant in history;
3. is associated with a person or persons who contributed significantly to the culture and development of the community, state, or nation;
4. exemplifies the cultural, political, economic, social, ethnic, or historic heritage of the community, state, or nation;
5. individually, or as a collection of resources, embodies distinguishing characteristics of a type, style, period, or specimen in architecture or engineering;
6. is the work of a designer whose work has influenced significantly the development of the community, state, or nation;
7. contains elements of design, detail, materials, or craftsmanship which represents a significant innovation;
8. is part of or related to a square or other distinctive element of community planning;
9. represents an established and familiar visual feature of the neighborhood or community;
10. has yielded or may be likely to yield information important in history or pre-history.

WHEREAS, it appears to Columbia City Council that the building located at 1644 Main Street (former Tapp's Building) is in excess of fifty (50) years old and represents an established and familiar visual feature of the neighborhood or community; NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED this 10th day of September, 2003, that 1644 Main Street (former Tapp's Building), Columbia, South Carolina, be and it hereby is designated as an historic property eligible for special property tax assessments as authorized by Ordinance Number 96-
